TRANSFUSION! TRANSFUSION!

Words sound familiar? Yes, Kats, that is part of our life today — rock 'n' roll, hot rods and cool slang! With this theme in mind we present the 1957 RAMPAGE.

Building our RAMPAGE hot rod and using it as our basic mobile power, we shall show how we have rodded through the school year.

Dedication

To Mr. Joseph Jezisek, better known as "Jess", we respectfully dedicate this yearbook. We wish to thank him for the music which he has instilled in many of his students. His patience and untiring efforts to help students will never be forgotten. He has built the music department from one band with nineteen members to the present senior band of 41 members and also a junior and beginning band. Under his leadership, the senior band has obtained new uniforms.

Because of the inspiration and encouragement that he has given to us, we would like to award him the highest honor that is in our power to bestow.

The first step in building our hot rod will be to secure the wheels (administration and faculty) because our rod could not motivate without these wheels which have carried the student body all through the years in school.

Senior Play "Mountain Gal"

In spite of falling curtains and flying rolling pins, the seniors, with the help of their director, Mr. Bartlett, presented their play, "Mountain Gal", on December 6 and 8 in a typical Ozark Mountain atmosphere.

The play revolved around Ma (Sharon Johnston) and Pa (Jerry Pemberton) Lindsay on their old farm. It began when Mr. and Mrs. Gordon (Richard Whitaker and Blanche Peterson) had car trouble and came to the Lindsays for help. Here they met Oby, the hired man, (Dick Keller) and his prospective bride Sophronia (Betty Johnston). They also met Catalpa, the lazy teen-age daughter (Artie Cook) and Dee-Dee (Karlene Howse) a little orphan girl whose biggest wish in life was to get an education. The Gordons immediately fell in love with Dee-Dee and, after much persuasion, took her back to the city with them, only to find later, through the help of a lady lawyer, Miss McKay (Joann Gokee), and Lawyer Perrin (Ed Penoyer) that Dee-Dee was their lost daughter.

Seniors: Cool Ones

Cool Kats! That's us — the Seniors of '57! Amidst all the "Blue Mondays and hard Tuesdays we have finally reached the Peak of "Blueberry Hill."

Greasing the way for our slippin' and slidin' were our panic maker, Dale Haven; vice-panic maker, Gerry Congleton; Scratcher, Sharon Johnston; mint keeper, Pat Johnston and our student council representatives Dick Keller and Don Lauer assisted by those Groovin' two: Mr. ("Fats") Baker and Miss ("Marianne") Andrews.

There must have been "Ninety-Nine Ways" that we added the "green" to our money tree. Among them were: Do-nut sales, eats at football and basketball games, a scratch pad sale, and a bracelet sale. January 19, we presented our "Senior Caper" and those cats, Deanna Bradley and Eddie Mathews reigned as King and Queen. December 6 and 8, we gave with our Senior Play "Mountain Gal". When February 2 rolled 'round all the cats were "All Shook Up" at our rock 'n' roll talent show featuring "Miss Elvis Presley". We won Third prize for our Homecoming float tabbed "You kill 'em, we'll bury 'em" and our "Long Tall Sally" Patsy Johnston served on the Queen's Court. April 12, most of the Senior boys and teachers needed a "Transfusion" as we presented a hilarious Donkey Basketball game. Our "Party Doll" Karlene Howse was our candidate for Miss Michigan Winter Queen. We attended College Day and on March 27, we attended Career Day where the Senior girls were given the outest tea ever!

Then we cats and chicks boarded the "Calypso Boat" for New York City where "You'll Never, Never Know" What a ball we cut!

Farewell, all cats of birdland. Dig ya later! Meanwhile, Hang low _____ We'll go!

Go! Go! Go, Cats, Go!

Juniors: Jivin' Ones

The crazy class of '58 really went ape during the school year of 1956 - 57. We started the year by selling eats at the first football game. When the homecoming game rolled 'round we gave with the most and came up with a second prize for our float. Our Sadie Hawkins Dance on October 27 was the sneakiest ever, and it gave us a chance to add to our "green" in the treasury. But, man, don't you think for a minute we were loafing between all these big events! We gave with bread, candy and bake sales which also added to our financial standing. Then came the day we went to Petoskey to learn more about becoming B.M.O.C.'s. That was College Day, and it was the most.

By this time we were all showing off our sharp class rings which we had received at the beginning of the prison term. We had a cider sale that really gassed most of the residents of our fair city but we had fun doing it, and again added to our money tree.

We struggled through the brain derbies and found ourselves in the second semester. Again we traveled to Petoskey, this time for Career Day. About this time of year we were slippin' and slidin' through our school work. And why? Man, we were working on our real gone junior play, which kept us pretty busy. We gave with the play on the 28th, 29th and 30th of March.

Close on the heels of our play was the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held in the Perry Hotel on April 6. Then for about a month we were real gone on the J-Hop, held in the gym on May 11. By the end of the school year, our class was really droolin' with schoolin', 'cause our kats and kittens were real gone on science and math. This was proven by the size of our physics and algebra II classes, the biggest yet! Dig you later, 'gator.

Junior Play "The Magic Touch"

"The Magic Touch," junior play presented on March 29 and 30, was mainly about the tomboy activities of Alice Erwin as Bobbette Braddock. She is surrounded in the photograph above by members of the "Dirty Dozen" football team, Bill Juilleret, Pete Graham and Jack Meyer.

The "cool cats" of '58, with the unending patience of Mr. ("Elvis") Bartlett, director, gave with our play "The Magic Touch" on March 28, 29, and 30.

The play centered around Mr. and Mrs. Braddock (Alford LaCount and Edee Juilleret) and their tomboy daughter, Bobbette (Alice Erwin). Mrs. Braddock wanted Bobby to be in the Annual Better Culture Club style show, but Bobby and her gang, Socko (Jack Meyer), Hank (Bill Juilleret), and Chuck (Pete Graham) had a big football game that night. Mrs. Braddock hired a cook, Mrs. Washington (Rosemary Cetus), and a maid, Ophelia (Doris Hoffman), to do some of her housework. Miss Blodgett (Margaret Cassidy) the home economics teacher, sent Willie (Allen Allerding) to Mrs. Braddock as a chauffeur. Squint (Phillip Knight) was a gum chewing electrician. Mrs. Clarence (Virginia Andrews) and Mrs. Poo (Sharon Terpening) were the community's social leaders. Frieda (Linda Bennington), Mrs. Stockdale's niece was a rival to Bobby for Socko's friendship. Frieda taught the gang how to dance, and Bobby, overcome with anger ran away from home. Miss Blodgett had a talk with Bobby and convinced her to be in the style show. Bobby won first prize, gave up her tomboy ways, and won Socko.

The swingin' sophs, under the glaring glows of Miss Helm and Mr. Wilde, boosted our bankroll to meet the tab of our senior stroll. Our crazy capers such as our Valentine Shuffle, the stroller spray, senior caper booths, eat sales at football and basketball scrapes, bake sales, and P.T.A. scuffles netted more than 150 clams.

Our float, the outest and swingin'est and tabbed "Swat 'em Down", reaped top notch in the homecoming parade. Our way-up chick. Velda Peterson, served on the Queen's Court.

Those grooving two; Sam Gokee and Bonnie Bliss, carried our backing as candidates for king and queen at the Senior Caper.

We started our first year as hep cats and cool chicks of Harbor High with those crazy elephant trainers, Mr. Beer and Mr. Perry. our first crazy move was our float in the Homecoming parade, "Harbor Will Shine Tonight". We hauled in a cool mint of over 145 greenbacks on such cool sellers as bake sales, chili spread, toboggan party, custom cleaner, and a jivin' fun house at the Senior Carnival.

Those rockin' two, Doug Meeker and Shirley Penoyer, were our candidates at the Senior Carnival. Our cool president, Kay Ira, looked the mostest on the Queen's Court.

Another year of school has come and gone, which C.Y.C. has enjoyed immensely.

We started the school year by entering the float, Calvary, in the homecoming parade. It consisted of three white crosses mounted on a base of ground hemlock. Calvary was the most unusual float in the parade and truly it was a silent testimony of the Christian spirit in C.Y.C.

During the winter a sliding party at Walter Cole's was planned. The night was wonderful and the snow was just right. About fifty people attended this party.

The officers for this school year '56-'57 have been David Halter, president; Blanche Peterson, vice-president; Ruth Halter, secretary-treasurer; and Anna Cole, publicity chairman.

The sponsors are Mrs. Kenneth Shinn and Mr. Lyle Hoover.

Many different churches have been represented by both ministers and members.

New chorus books were purchased from which many new songs have been learned.

C.Y.C.'s constitution has been reworded.

C.Y.C. meetings have been times of spiritual refreshment and will continue by God's Grace to be so.

Rampage

This year the journalism class worked hard in an attempt to present the students of Harbor Springs High School a better-than-ever yearbook. One of our biggest improvements is the new and better grade cover.

We in the journalism class sincerely hope that this 1957 RAMPAGE will serve as a happy memorandum to the graduates of "57" and all future graduates.

We extend our appreciation to our advisor, Miss Corey, who was greatly responsible for the success of this yearbook. Also we give our sincere thanks to Mr. Paul Verseput of the Emmet County Graphic for his cooperation in printing the RAMPAGE of "57", and to Mr. Voight Troup, our photographer.

Rams' Roundup

A group of 19 enthusiastic juniors and seniors began journalism class at Harbor High this year. Six more interested juniors and one senior joined us the second semester. One of our main projects has been to publish the school paper, the RAMS' ROUNDUP, under the guidance of our class adviser, Miss Lois Jane Corey. We also helped to raise funds for the RAMPAGE by making and selling programs at the homecoming game.

Blanche Peterson was editor of the RAMS' ROUNDUP, with the entire journalism class helping in the great work of putting the paper out. We received a third class honor rating from the National Scholastic Press Association for the first semester.

Caroline Sterly, exchange editor, was kept busy with twenty-one schools on our exchange list. We exchange papers so that we will know what is going on in other schools, and how other papers are organized and published.

During the past year we have done much to raise money and to help the community; and have attended various shows to test our abilities as working teams.

We have fifteen new Greenhands (new members), four new Chapter Farmers, and one State Farmer.

We attended the Youth Crop Show at Traverse City where we entered various grains, apples, grasses, and clovers. We also took two judging teams for hay and grain. In hay we came in second best, and in grain we won first place. Nineteen members attended Farmer's Week at East Lansing. The district contest was held at Pellston. We entered one demonstration team on how to clean electric motors, which won first prize. At the regional contest held at Traverse City we entered one demonstration team on how to clean electric motors, which again placed first. For the State Convention at East Lansing we entered three boys for the pageant, and two delegates from Harbor Springs High School. We entered an education display at the Emmet County Fair which won first prize.

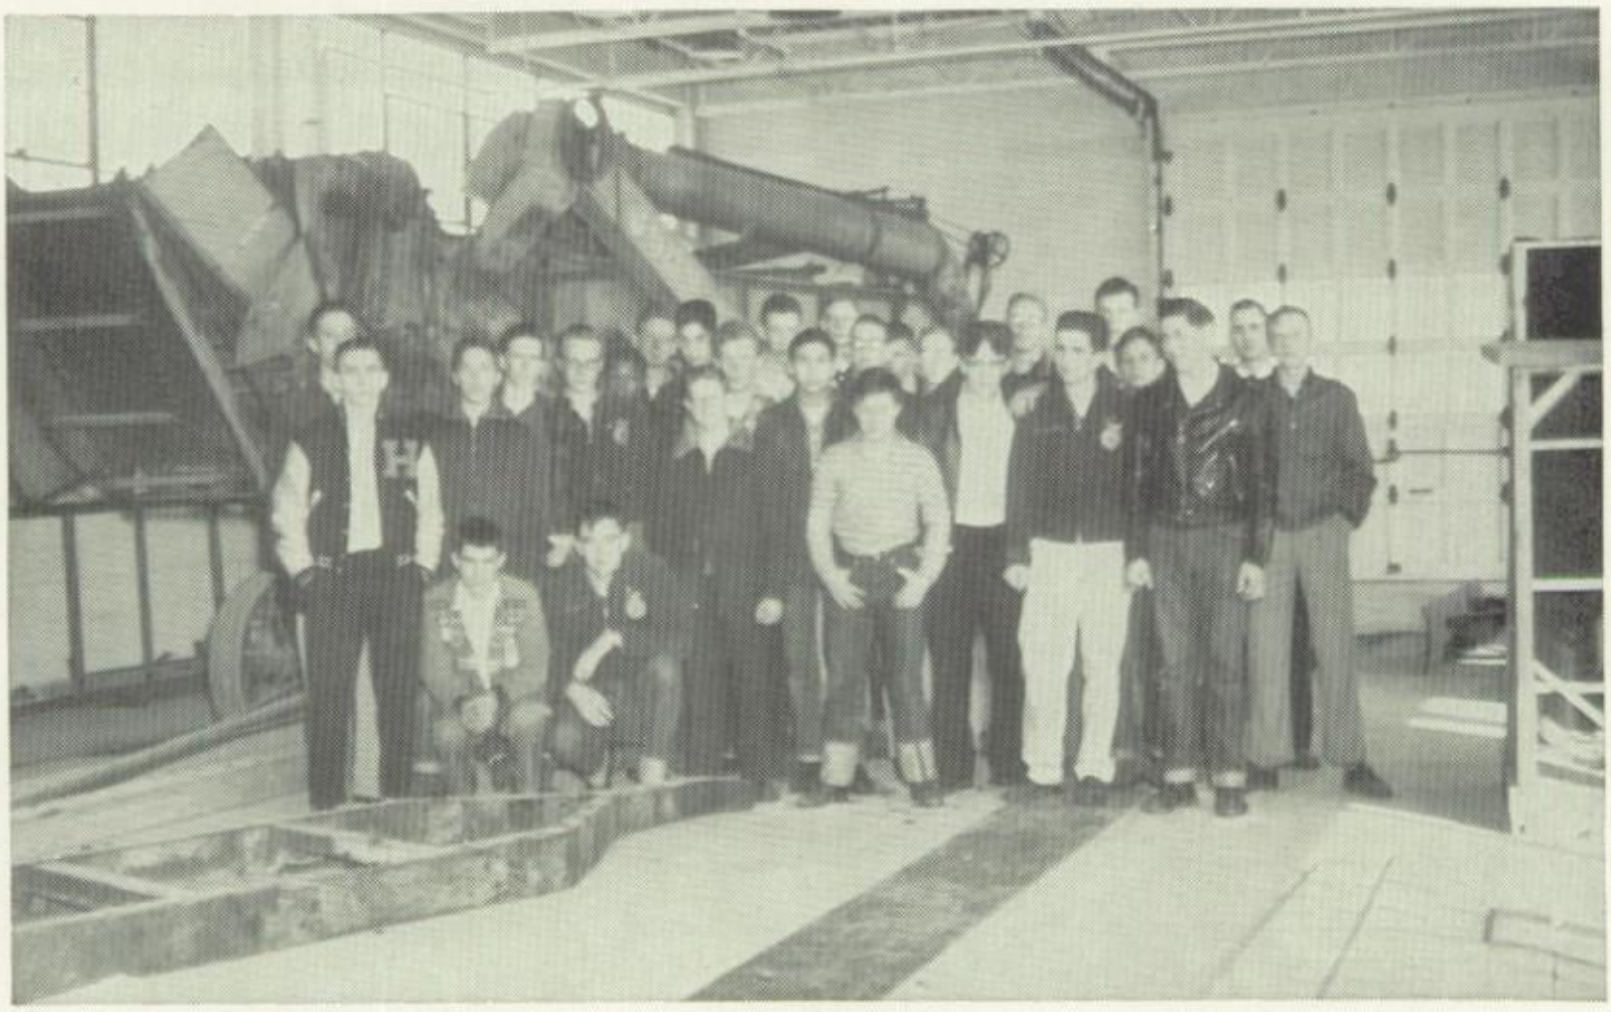
Two boys from Harbor High attended the Dairy Show in Traverse City. Only boys who have dairy projects can attend this meeting.

Awards were received this past year for individual projects by Andy Kloss (swine), Dale Haven (dairy), Hazen Gregory (crops), and Bob Bernhardt (poultry).

We raised money by selling Christmas trees and garden seeds, selling popcorn at football games, and having pancake suppers.

Officers of this club are: president, Andy Kloss; vice president, Hazen Gregory; treasurer, Don Kruskie; secretary, Alvin Lightfoot; sentinel, Don Arman; and reporter, Tom Borowski.

Agriculture Building



During the past years the community has been undecided as to whether we need a farm shop building for the boys. In the summer of 1955 it was voted down. A revote was held later which passed unamously. Construction started in the fall of 1955. It was ready for use in the fall of 1956.

The building is in a rectangular form and is ninety-one feet long and forty-two feet wide. It is split into three parts. There is a study, room with a dimension of twenty-one by thirty-two feet, which is for study, and work on farm records and note books. There is a storeroom where all our personal belongings are stored under lock and key at all times. Then there is the shop, the place of work. Its dimensions are sixty-six by forty feet. We have room for about twelve tractors and many other items such as trailers, fish shanties, buzz-rigs, and threshing machines. The approximate total cost is thirty thouand dollars (without the tools). The heat and lights run from the school with a very sturdy pipe formation.

We are all proud of our new building and surely are glad to have it in which to work and hold our meetings.

In our second year of existence, the Harbor Springs chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is gradually increasing in members and activities

Our purpose is to better our family and community life and to promote further interest in home economics.

The first project of the year was to serve the State Grange Banquet at the 4-H building. The next big event was the formal initiation at Christmas time, with the parents as guests. This spring we are trying to better our understanding of other countries and their customs. We are doing this by having people in to serve a dish typical of their country and tell us a little of their customs and living conditions.

We are also trying to make money to buy F.H.A. jackets.

The list of clubs in Harbor Springs High School was made one larger this year by the formation of a Future Teachers' Club. This is a national society. The club in this school is still waiting for its national membership.

The purpose of this club is to stimulate interest in the teaching profession, and acquaint those interested students with it.

The duties are to help the teachers in the school system by correcting and grading papers, working with the slow students, and helping put up educational bulletin boards.

The officers of the club are: president, Mary Ann Ellwanger; vice president, Richard Rosemeier; treasurer, Donna Brubaker; and secretary, Ruth Halter.

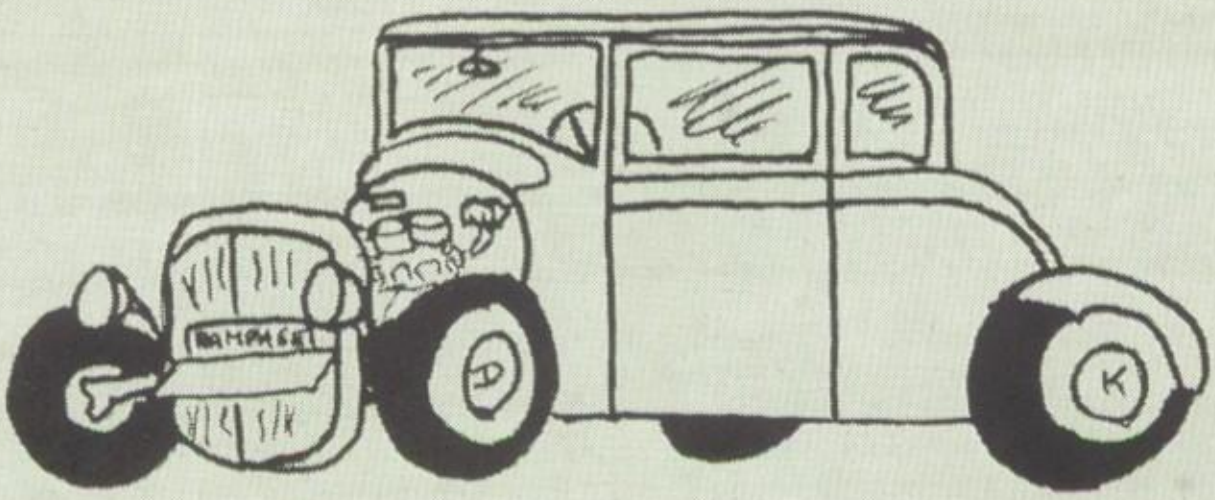
We had a Christmas party in the city library to which we brought 46 used books and donated them to Little Traverse Hospital. Along with our other activities this year, we entered a T.A.B. bulletin board contest.



Last, but not least, we'll add the motor to give our hot rod the power and force which it needs to drive. This motor will represent our athletics and sports that provides the spark and power for our school.

We have won many praises for doing this both from our school and also from the visiting schools.
